

MARYLAND AUTOMOBILE INSURANCE

TABLE OF CONTENTS

I. LIABILITY COVERAGE

1.	When must liability coverage be offered and provided?	1
2.	What is the minimum liability coverage limits which must be provided?	2
3.	When does liability coverage include a duty to defend the insured in lawsuits against the insured?	2
4.	Where a policy does generally impose a duty to defend, under what circumstances is the duty to defend triggered?	2
5.	Must an insurer defend its insured even if it has exhausted its policy limits?	3
6.	Who is an "insured?"	3
7.	What vehicles are insured vehicles?	3
8.	What exclusions from coverage are allowed?	4
9.	What are the insured's duties?	5
10.	If more than one policy provides liability coverage, which policy is primary?	6
11.	When can an injured plaintiff maintain a lawsuit directly against the negligent person's insurance company?	6
12.	How does the bankruptcy of the insured affect the insurer's obligation to provide liability coverage?	6
13.	When can an insurer be liable for bad-faith refusal to provide liability coverage?	7

II. UNINSURED MOTORIST COVERAGE

1. What is an "uninsured" motor vehicle? 8

2. In Maryland, what is the difference between an "uninsured" vehicle and an "underinsured" vehicle? 8

3. When must uninsured motorist coverage be provided? 8

4. Are there vehicles for which uninsured motorist coverage need not be provided? 8

5. What uninsured motorist coverage must be provided? 9

6. What is the minimum amount of uninsured motorist coverage that must be provided? 9

7. What is the maximum amount of uninsured motorist coverage that can be offered? 9

8. How is the amount of available coverage calculated? 9

9. Is uninsured motorist coverage a type of no-fault coverage? 10

10. When can the claimant sue the insurer for uninsured motorist coverage? 10

11. Who is an "uninsured"? 10

12. What exclusions are permitted? 10

13. What "damages" can the insured recover from the insurer? 11

14. Are binding arbitration clauses valid? 11

15. Can the insurer who pays uninsured motorist benefits to its insured thereafter recover the payments from the tortfeasor? 11

16. Can uninsured motorist coverage be "stacked"? 11

17.	Can an insurer who pays uninsured motorist coverage benefits get an offset for workers' compensation benefits?	12
18.	What is the statute of limitations for suing an insurer for uninsured motorist benefits?	12
19.	Can an insurer be liable for bad-faith refusal to pay uninsured motorist benefits?	12

III. PERSONAL INJURY PROTECTION COVERAGE

1.	When must PIP coverage be offered and provided?	13
2.	Is there a minimum amount of PIP coverage?	14
3.	What PIP benefits must be provided?	14
4.	Are PIP benefits payable without regard to other benefits?	15
5.	Can an insurer who pays PIP benefits subrogate against a third party to recoup those benefits?	15
6.	Can PIP benefits be "stacked"?	15
7.	Can an insurer who pays PIP benefits get an offset for workers compensation benefits?	15
8.	What is the statute of limitations for suing an insurer for PIP benefits?	15
9.	Can an insurer be liable for bad-faith refusal to pay PIP benefits?	16

IV COLLISION COVERAGE

1.	When must collision coverage be offered and provided?	17
2.	What collision benefits must be provided?	17

3.	How is the amount of benefits determined?	17
4.	Are collision benefits available for damage to rental cars?	18
5.	What exclusions from collision coverage are permissible?	18
6.	Can an insurer which pays collision benefits subrogate against the third party who tortuously caused the vehicle damage?	19