Michelle Powers Alvarez is an experienced Litigation Paralegal assigned to support the practices of partners, Christopher Dunn and James Liskow. She recently re-joined the law firm after a fourteen year hiatus, during which time she managed her own business as an independent paralegal.

Michelle earned an Associate of Applied Science degree in Paralegal Studies in 1997, and later a B.S. in Legal Studies, with a minor in Government and Politics, from the University of Maryland University College in 2003. She is an active member of the Maryland Paralegal Association.

A native Marylander, she currently resides in Anne Arundel County where she enjoys coaching youth sports, gardening, and spending time with her husband and daughters.
